External Provider Agreement

Single course provision for HSC Italian Beginners will be considered only when the home school Principal certifies that the Department's common requirements for single course provision are met.

- Students are capable of working independently.
- In providing single course access, the relationship is strictly between the home school and Marco Polo - The Italian School of Sydney. This means that any parent/carer concerns are to be raised at the student's home school which then has a responsibility to communicate with Marco Polo - The Italian School of Sydney.
- A member of the teaching staff at the home school has been nominated to supervise the study arrangements of single course students, including assignments, formal examinations and assessment tasks.
- Where possible the supervisor should be the Curriculum Coordinator or a teacher.
- Students will be allocated the prescribed time to study single courses, including daily study/work periods and times when distance education teachers can contact students.
- Procedures will be in place to ensure that students will regularly attempt and complete all tasks including assignments, formal examinations and assessments.
- Students will send and receive emails from the Marco Polo - The Italian School of Sydney.
- Examinations and assessment tasks will be worked on the date(s) and at the time(s) specified and will be submitted by the due date.
- Written notification will be made to Marco Polo - The Italian School of Sydney in the event of a change of supervisor.
- The home school will notify Marco Polo - The Italian School of Sydney of any special needs, special circumstances, disability provisions or learning adjustments made for this student.
- It is the home school's responsibility to apply for NESA Disability Provisions if required, and the student's supervisor will communicate any approved NESA Disability Provisions directly to Marco Polo - The Italian School of Sydney. There is an expectation that any Personalised Learning and Support Plans will be communicated in the same manner.
- As a condition of continued enrolment, all students enrolled at Marco Polo - The Italian School of Sydney must meet standards of engagement and participation set to satisfy the compulsory attendance requirements of the Education Act 1990. When students are not meeting their engagement and participation obligations, a review can be undertaken at any time.
